

PECONIC TEACHER CENTER

is pleased to announce

Molloy College has developed a new pathway for

Online ESOL Certification

Based upon feedback from Teacher Centers, Molloy has added a new fully online section of the first course that should be taken in the program:

EDU 5140.08; Teaching English Language Learners. The course will be offered from 3/14-5/2. The course is expected to close-out.

Molloy plans to offer other online courses that would follow in May-August as follows:

EDU 5252 (formerly EDU 540); Intro to Linguistics: 5/14-6/25, Kelley Cordeiro

EDU 5254 (formerly EDU 542), Structure and Application of American English, 6/12-8/2, Amy Eckelman

EDU 5256 (formerly EDU 544): PK-12 TESOL Teaching Practice and Assessment; Fall 2019, dates TBD

For interested teachers, most of the information regarding the requirements for the program, as well as registration information, can be found on Molloy's webpage at: www.molloy.edu/tesol. Of course, you can always contact Lou Cino at lcino@molloy.edu or at 516-323-3549.
