

New York Institute of Technology

Long Island's 1st Annual Computer Science and Computational Thinking Conference

At this day-long conference, educators in Long Island will come together to learn about the upcoming NYS Computer Science K-12 standards and share information about best practices and best instructional resources for teaching Computer Science and Computational Thinking in three grade strands: K-5, 6-8, and 9-12.

- Keynote by Dr. Michael P. Nagler, Supt. of Mineola Schools
- Panel discussion on Computational Thinking
- Breakout sessions designed for each grade strand
- Demonstrations of new instructional resources for Computer Science
- Hands-on Playground/Computer Science EdCamp
- Participants may earn 6 CTLE hours with completed reflection work

Date/Time: Monday, July 1, 2019, 8:00–3:30

Location: NYIT de Seversky Mansion, 1 Northern Blvd, Glen Head

Cost: $30.00 (covers breakfast, lunch, dessert bar, and takeaways)

Registration (copy and paste link into your browser):

<https://www.mylearningplan.com/WebReg/ActivityProfile.asp?D=18802&I=3078356>

Questions? Ask Carol Weintraub, intercountytc@gmail.com