

New York Partners for Technology Innovation (NYPTI) is offering five online professional development courses starting in January. These 15-hour, five week courses give teachers the opportunity to explore, evaluate, and implement material learned into their grade-level and subject area instruction. A state-approved CTLE certificate will be awarded upon successful completion of the course, and district PD hours may be granted with prior district approval.

Collaboration with Google Drive

Cyberbullying and Internet Safety

Full STEAM Ahead: Exploring and Creating STEAM lessons

Technology Tools for English Language Learners

The Digital Classroom

Dates: January 14- February 15, 2019

Times: as chosen by participant

Location: online via Moodle

Cost: $65.00 for each 15-hour class

Register at

<https://www.mylearningplan.com/webreg/catalog.asp?H=1&D=18802>

Questions? Ask Carol Weintraub, Director, at intercountyc@gmail.com