

Stony Brook University

ESOL Supplementary
Certificate Graduate
Course Cluster

ESOL Graduate Cluster Open House

Wednesday, December 2, 2020

Dr. Craig Markson

Dr. Robert Mangione

School of Professional Development

ESOL Graduate Course Cluster

5 Graduate Courses

LIN 502 Methods I: Foundation of ESOL
Pedagogy

LIN 503 Methods II: Language and Literacy through Content Areas

LIN 504 Introduction to Teaching Linguistic and Literacy Skills to English Language Learners

LIN 505 Structure of English Grammar for Teachers

LIN 544 Literacy in the Content Areas

Certification Requirements

Prospective students must:

- Hold a valid NYS Teaching Certificate
- Satisfactorily complete the five graduate courses
- Satisfactorily complete the content specialty test (CST) in ESOL
- Apply individually to NYSED for the Supplementary certificate
- Your application will require a certification signed by the superintendent attesting to the fact that there is a demonstrated shortage of such certified teachers.

FOR THE SUPPLEMENTARY LICENSE

To apply for a Supplementary License, you must first hold a valid NYS Teaching Certificate. You will be expected to complete the requirements for the permanent certificate within 3 years. The requirements are provided in more detail on the NYSED website at <http://eservices.nysed.gov/teach/cerhelp/CertRequirementHelp.do>

Candidates must also pass the Content Specialty Test (CST) for ESOL. This test is designed to measure the both the theoretical and practical aspects of teaching ELL students of all age groups and language proficiency levels. Lesson planning, assessment and classroom management strategies are all included in the CST. View this website for additional information.

FOR THE CERTIFICATION TO BECOME PERMANENT/PROFESSIONAL

The determination of your eligibility for the alternate route certification can only be made by the NYS evaluators, who will look at your transcripts and determine, on a case-by-case basis, which requirements you have met and what remains for you to do. Refer to the NYSED website listed above for the most up-to-date certification rulings.

Program Information

- Tuition
 - $1195 + $50 TC administrative fee = $1245 per course (subject to change)
- Flexible modes of instruction
 - Courses can be offered face-to-face, hybrid, and/or online
- Virtual meetings through Zoom throughout the course to stay connected and enhance student learning
 - Asynchronous online courses with synchronous components.
- A program sensitive to the needs of K-12 Educators

Applicant Requirements

- Bachelor's or Master's Degree
 - Submit unofficial or official transcripts depending on program
- Valid teaching Certification recommended
- Completed Application on Apply Yourself
 - Short application questionnaire
 - $25 application fee
- Deadline for the Spring II semester is January 1.

Application instructions:

Step 1: Go to the following website:

<https://www.stonybrook.edu/commcms/spd/admissions/nonmatriculated.php>

Step 2: From the above link, please make the below section –
“Apply to the SPD Cohort”

SPD'S NON-MATRICULATED COHORT STUDENTS

Prospective students who are applying to take courses in one of SPD's off-campus cohorts (e.g., those that meet at a Teachers Center or as part of our St. John's articulation agreement), apply through the School of Professional Development, not the Graduate School.

All applicants must upload a copy of the transcript reflecting conferral of a bachelor's degree, with a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.5. (Note: Applicants applying as a part of the EdD articulation agreement must upload a copy of their transcript reflecting conferral of a master's degree.)

There is a nonrefundable $25 application fee .

Deadlines for Non-matriculated Teacher Center Cohort Students

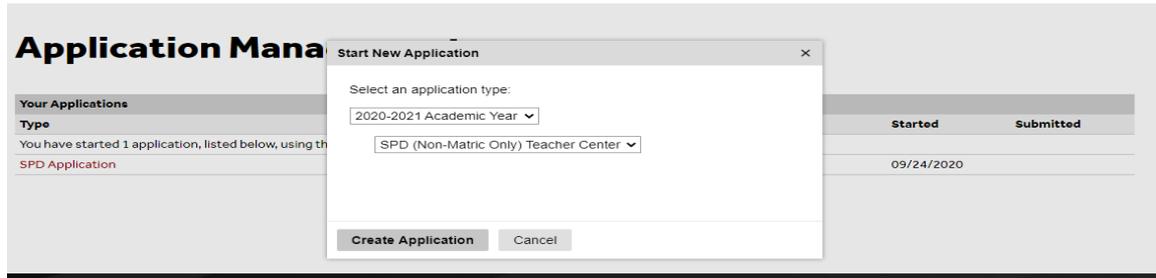

- Fall: August 15
- Spring: January 1
- Summer: May 15

APPLY TO THE SPD COHORT >

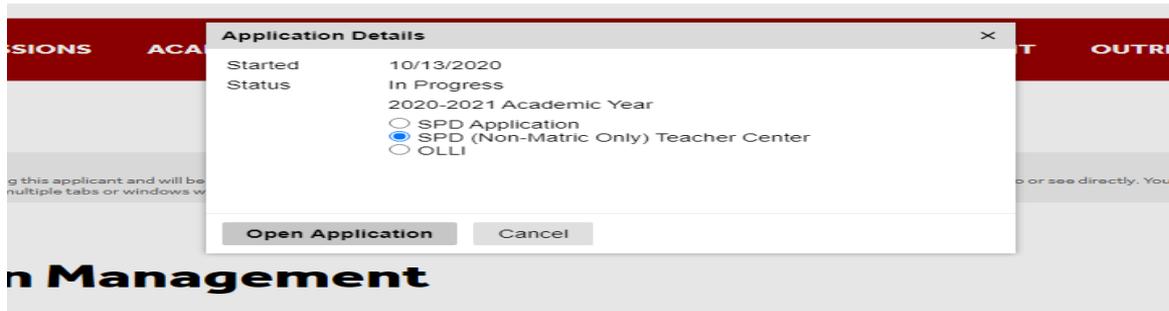

Stony Brook University/SUNY is an affirmative action, equal opportunity educator and employer. Stony Brook University is 100 percent tobacco-free.

When starting an application, the first prompt an applicant will see is “Select an application type”. This should only be populated as the current application cycle year (in this case, 2020 - 2021 Academic Year).

When that option is selected, a new dropdown box will appear, with options for a particular application type. For Educational Technology applicants, they should select “SPD (Non-Matric Only) Teacher Center”.

After clicking “Create Application”, the following screen will appear:

After opening the application, applicants will work through the first few pages covering basic biographical information. When they get to the Admission Information, they will see the following:

Admission Information

Intended Program
Non-Matriculated Study - Teacher Center Cohort (NOT Ed. Leadership) ▼

Intended Cohort
ESOL (English to Speakers of Other Languages) ▼

Intended Cohort Location
CR-ITI Grant - OWL Lindehurst Teacher Center ▼

Intended Entry Term
Spring 2021 ▼

If you do not see the term for which you intend to apply, either the deadline date to apply for admission has passed, or the application for the intended term is not yet available. Please note the application deadline dates for each program on the program's page of the SPD website.

Have you previously applied to or attended SBU (ie Undergraduate, Graduate School, SPD, HSC, etc.)?

- Yes
 No

Continue

For intended program, these applicants should select “Non-Matriculated Study - Teacher Center Cohort (NOT Ed. Leadership). This will produce a new dropdown box. You should select “ESOL (English to Speakers of Other Languages).” Applicants should then select whichever cohort location is applicable.

Questions and Next Steps

- Look out for the registration instructions email
- Complete the Stony Brook University Non-matriculated application by January 1
- Get Accepted by the middle of January
- If enough students apply/are accepted, class starts in the Spring II – 3/23/2021 – 6/1/2021

Contact Information

Dr. Craig Markson

Craig.Markson@stonybrook.edu

Dr. Robert Mangione

Robert.Mangione@stonybrook.edu

School of Professional Development

spd@stonybrook.edu