Presented by
Kristine Eberhart, NBCT, Professional Learning Facilitator
& Representative for NBCNY Advisory Board

The National Board Awareness workshop will introduce you to the Mission of the National Board of Professional Teaching Standards, and the process by which you can achieve National Board Certification.

Explore a few of the reasons teachers choose to pursue Board Certification

- To achieve autonomy over your own professional development
 - To master your teaching craft, through self-reflection
- To give your work purpose through stronger student achievement
